Emlyon Business School

Emlyon business school is a business school with an applied and entrepreneurship-focused approach to international business education. It was known as the Ecole Supérieure de Commerce de Lyon until 1997, EMLYON is one of the oldest business schools in France, founded by the city's business community in 1872.

The school has three campuses in France as well as international campuses in Casablanca and Shanghai. Its main campus is in the suburb of Ecully. It has other French campuses at St Etienne and, since 2016, in Paris along with collaborative agreements with other universities in Lyon, Sciences-Po in Paris and the highly prestigious Ecole des Mines.

Emlyon business school has partnerships with 181 universities worldwide. Each year, around 1,000 students benefit from these partnerships, completing part of their studies on campuses abroad.
