

University of Applied Sciences Northwestern Switzerland - FHNW

University of Applied Sciences and Arts Northwestern Switzerland-FHNW

FHNW is one of Switzerland's leading universities of applied sciences and arts, actively involved in teaching, research, continuing education and service provision - both innovative and practice-oriented. Its broad range of degree programmes, hands-on concept, innovative, application-oriented research and global network make FHNW a diversified and appealing educational institution, a sought-after partner to industry and an attractive employer in northwestern Switzerland.

The FHNW has four main campuses in the region of northwestern Switzerland. The FHNW University of Applied Sciences and Arts Northwestern Switzerland is an educational institution that bases all of its teaching, research, continuing education and services on an appreciation of internationalisation, thus preparing its students for the economic, environmental and social challenges facing global societies.
