

Universidad Autónoma de Madrid

Universidad Autónoma de Madrid

Universidad Autónoma de Madrid (UAM) is a public university with an outstanding international reputation for its high-quality teaching and research. Founded in 1968, it has been generally recognized as one of the best Spanish universities in both national and international rankings.

UAM has the following Faculties/Schools: Science, Economics and Business Studies, Law, Art and Philosophy, Medicine, Psychology, Teachers' Training and Education, an Engineering School for Computer Science and several affiliated centres, offering a wide range of studies in humanities and scientific and technical fields. Currently it has about 30,000 students, about 2,800 professors and researchers and nearly 1,000 administrative staff.

Program Type	Exchange (Undergraduate, Master)
Address	Universidad Autónoma de Madrid Ciudad Universitaria de Cantoblanco · 28049 Madrid, Spain
Web site	The Autonomous University of Madrid
Academic calendar	Click here to access. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Semester 1: September - January</li><li>• Semester 2: February - June</li></ul>