

Hong Kong Baptist University

Hong Kong Baptist University

In 1956, Hong Kong Baptist College was founded by the Baptist Convention of Hong Kong as a post-secondary college committed to the provision of whole person education. In 1983, Hong Kong Baptist College became a fully-funded public tertiary institution. It gained university status in 1994 and was renamed Hong Kong Baptist University (HKBU).

The school also has an extra-territorial campus in Zhuhai in Guangdong Province - the United International College - which is jointly established with Beijing Normal University. It is the first full-scale cooperation in higher education between Mainland China and Hong Kong.

HKBU offers a range of undergraduate programmes, taught postgraduate programmes, and research programmes leading to the award of MPhil and PhD degrees.
