

University of Verona

University of Verona

The University of Verona strives for excellence in teaching, research and innovation. It has 22,000 students and 1,500 staffs including lecturers, researchers, technical and administrative personnel who work to continually improve and grow the university.

A forward-thinking institution which continuously seeks to strengthen the link between its degree courses and the real world of work the university's main objective for the near future is to become progressively more welcoming and adapted to students needs.

The University of Verona currently hosts more than 1,300 international students coming from Countries around the world, including Romania, Albania, Moldova, Spain, Germany, Ukraine, Morocco, Russia, Serbia, Cameroon, the UK, Poland, China, India and Brazil.

Program Type	Exchange (Undergraduate, Master)
Address	University of Verona Via San Francesco, 22 - 37129 Verona - Italy
Web site	University of Verona
Academic calendar	Click here to access. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• 1st Semester: mid September - January• 2nd Semester: mid February - May