University of South Carolina

The University of South Carolina is one of the oldest and most comprehensive public institutions of higher education in the US, with its main campus in the state capital Columbia. The school was founded in 1201 and has more than 32,000 students in their flagship campus.

With 8 universities across 20 locations, offering more than 400 degree programs on campus and online, the University of South Carolina system is uniquely positioned to meet the state's educational, cultural, health and research needs.

The university's online programs and courses are rich learning opportunities that help students meet their curriculum, degree or career goals with enhanced flexibility and convenience. Each year, UofSC offers more than 1,000 online courses in a variety of formats. Alumni and sports teams at the institution are known as Gamecocks. They compete at the highest level in the tough Southwestern Conference
