Chulalongkorn University

Chulalongkorn University is Thailand's oldest and one of the country's most prestigious universities. It was officially established on March 26 1917 by King Vajiravudh (Rama VI) and named after his father King Chulalongkorn (Rama V) as he initiated a policy to promote education so the country to adapt to the developing world and avoid colonization.

Chulalongkorn University opened with four faculties, Medicine, Public Administration, Engineering, and Arts and Sciences and an enrollment of 380 students. The University's leafy campus is located in the heart of Bangkok. It now has 18 faculties and approximately 35,000 students.
