National Chengchi University

National Chengchi University (NCCU) is a comprehensive public university, founded in 1927 in Nanjing. It is currently ranked among the top ten universities in Taiwan.

Apart from the main campus in Taipei, the university has two branch campuses and three affiliated schools - with its main base winning first prize in the Taipei Urban Landscape Award for its campus planning by the city government of Taipei.

National Chengchi University is known for having the best degree programs in Humanities, Social Sciences, and Business in Taiwan. The school has 659 partner university agreements in the university, college, and department level, providing plenty of opportunity for exchange and double degree studies. It also offers more than 600 courses taught in English.
