Renmin University of China

Located in Beijing, next to Peking and Tsinghua Universities, Renmin University of China (RUC) is a significant research university, and also the most prestigious university in the humanities and social sciences in China's higher education sector.

RUC was established in 1937 during the Sino-Japanese war. The University acquired its present status in 1950, which made it the first university to be established by the newly founded People's Republic of China. It currently has about 24,000 students.
