SKEMA Business School

SKEMA Business School is a private establishment of higher education and research with the legal status of a non-profit association under the French "1901 law"

It is a global school with 9,000 students of 120 nationalities. It has three campuses in France, one in China, one in USA, one in Brazil and one in South Africa.

The School was founded in 2009, through the merging of two French schools: Groupe ESC Lille and CERAM Business School, which were founded in 1892 and 1963 respectively.

SKEMA Business School aims at providing its students the best exposure to different industries. To facilitate this, various seminars, conferences, guest lectures and other events are conducted throughout the year in which students, alumni and industry experts participate.
