Studying at the HWR Berlin – Department of Cooperative Studies

At the Department of Cooperative Studies, we currently have over 2000 enrolments. Our department offers special study programmes that combine full-time classroom study with regular, practical on-the-job training. This dual structure of studies allows for applied learning and the acquisition of a broad range of professional skills, including social and methodological competencies, mainly in the field of business-related subjects, but also in a number of technical disciplines. About 700 companies cooperate with the HWR Berlin by functioning as on-the-job training partners during the practical phases of study.

Special Requirements for Berlin Study Plus

- Hand in a motivation letter and CV describing your profile and the area/industry you would like to do your internship to joanna.rieloff@hwr-berlin.de
- Very good English skills (at least equivalent to B2 on the CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference); TOEFL ITP 543 points; TOEFL iBT 87 points; ELSA 383 points; IELTS 5)
- At least basic German skills (A1)
- Very good knowledge of German (when participating in German-language modules)
- Excellent academic performance
- At least 5th semester of business related studies
- Internship contract (can be handed in later)

Please note, we cannot guarantee internships!

Language of Instruction

The main language of instruction at the Department of Cooperative Studies is German. However, both programmes offer an English Stream. Level B2 in either English or German is required.

Programme Information – Berlin Study Semester / Berlin Study Plus

This is a short time exchange programme: 12 weeks of study in either our business or computer science programmes based on the cooperative study model. This special study format (also called Dual Studies) allows for applied learning, strong industry focus and, furthermore, the acquisition of a broad range of professional skills as well as social and methodological competences.

You can choose either Berlin Study Semester in Business Administration or our Berlin Study Plus Programme with an integrated internship phase.

Berlin Study Plus

The Computer Science Programme (Berlin Study Plus) includes a compulsory internship phase.
