

Department of Acting for Theatre, Film, and Television

About the department

Newly established in 2001, the Department of Acting for Theatre, Film, and Television mainly focuses on stage and camera acting as well as directing. The educational spectrum gradually expands to the areas of TV and multimedia such as web dramas, and acting for digital characters such as motion capture, in order to provide more vocational opportunities for students. However, unlike other institutions, our emphasis is heavily on the arts and humanities to produce distinguished actors and directors who have well-rounded knowledge as well as favorable attitudes. Currently, our alumni lead the Korean entertainment industry.

Vision & Mission

Our core mission is to produce actors and directors who have awareness of the ethics and morality of human society as well as esthetics.

Curriculum

Departmental Stage Performance

The department of Acting for Theatre, Film, and Television produces a play at the end of each semester. In the spring semester, we invite experienced play directors from outside to feed the students professional directing tips. In the fall semester, we selectively choose a student director to provide directorial experience before graduation.

Summer and Winter Drama Festival

Besides the departmental stage performance every semester, the Department of Acting for Theatre, Film, and Television holds a departmental Drama Festival every summer and winter break where 3~4 competitively selected undergraduate/graduate student teams participate in producing plays.

Annual Departmental Film Festival

At the end of every year, the Department of Acting for Theatre, Film, and Television holds an annual departmental film festival called "Uppercut Film Festival". All of the departmental student films produced during the full academic year are screened and awarded at this festival. This is the very last year ending departmental event and all of the students and faculty members participate to celebrate the end of a safe academic year.
